Deutsch, Kerrigan & Stiles, one of the Gulf Coast's premiere law firms, celebrates the recognition of 14 firm members in Louisiana Super Lawyers®.

With offices in New Orleans and Monroe, La., and Gulfport and Hattiesburg, Miss., the firm focuses on legal counseling and complex, high-stakes litigation.

Clients include local, national and international businesses, ranging in size from Fortune 500 companies to small, emerging businesses. The firm also represents state and local government bodies, non profit organizations and individuals.

EXPERIENCED ATTORNEYS DK&S utilizes a team of more than 60 counselors and litigators to ensure clients get the experience they need. While each attorney has developed areas of knowledge, members of the firm routinely work together to provide the most comprehensive legal solution possible.

The firm's key practice areas include civil litigation, commercial litigation, construction law, labor and employment law, toxic tort and environmental law, marine and energy law and professional liability law. The firm also provides a wide variety of legal services in most major practice areas.

SATISFIED CLIENTS DK&S maintains long-standing relationships with a wide-range of clients who depend on the firm for aggressive, thorough and personalized legal representation. Founded 80 years ago, the firm now serves companies across the Gulf South, throughout the United States and across the globe. Clients include airlines, architects, engineers, contractors, insurance companies, manufacturers, oil and gas exploration companies, trucking companies, financial institutions, real estate developers and marine service companies.

TRACK RECORD OF SUCCESS The firm's track record in litigating complex and high-profile cases is reflected in the number of favorable decisions reported in the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. 5th Circuit Court, the state courts of Louisiana and Mississippi and various other courts.

Equally important, DK&S believes in creative alternatives to traditional litigation procedures. When appropriate, the firm uses ad hoc judges, arbitrators and mediators to resolve matters. In addition, the firm promotes the use of mini-trials or selected issue resolution to bring reality and practicality to complicated cases.
